Republican Platform Pledges Stalwart "American" Policies Backed by Adequate Defenses

Following is the text of the republican platform adopted at Chicago:

In 1861 the republican party stood for the Union. As it stood for the Union of states, it now stands for a united people, true to American ideals, loyal to American traditions, knowing no the government and to the flag of the United States. We believe in American policies at home and abroad.

The We renew our allegiance to the Philipine policy inaugurated by McKinley, approved by Congress and consistently carried out by Roosevelt and Taft. Even in this short time it has enormously improved the material and social conditions of the islands, given the Philipine policy of the protection which entitled them to meet their foreign competitors, and, but for the adventitous conditions between this country and the countries of Latin America.

PHILIPPINES.

We renew our allegiance to the Philipine policy inaugurated by McKinley, approved by Congress and consistently carried out by Roosevelt and Taft. Even in this short time it has enormously improved the material and social conditions of the islands, given the Philipine policy in the lican platform adopted at Chicago: the United States. We declare that we believe in and will enforce the protection of every merican citizen in all the rights seured to him by the Constitution, trea ties and the law of nations, at home rights, which, in violation of the speific promise of their party made at Baltimore in 1912, the democratic President and the democratic Congress have failed to defend, we will unflinch-

MEXICO.

We deeply sympathize with the 15, 000,000 people of Mexico who for three years have seen their country devastated, their homes destroyed, their fellow citizens murdered and their women outraged, by armed bands of desperadoes led by self-seeking, conscienceless agitators, who, when temporarily successful in any locality, have neither sought nor been able to restore order or establish and maintain peace.

sestablish and maintain peace.

We express our horror and indignation at the outrages which have been and are being perpetrated by these bandits upon American men and women who were or are in Mexico by invitation of the laws and of the government of that country and whose rights to security of person and property are guaranteed by solemn treaty obligations. We denounce the indefensible methods of interference employed by this administration in the internal affairs of Mexico and refer with shame to its failure to discharge the duty of this country as next friend to Mexico, its duty to other powers who have remitting the continuance of such conditions first by failure to act promptly and firmly, and, second, by lending its influence to the continuation of such conditions through recognition of one of the factions responsible for these outrages.

We must have a navy strong and so well proportioned and equipped, so thoroughly ready and prepared, that no enemy can gain command of the sea and effect a landing in force on either our western or our eastern coast. To secure these results we must have a coherent and continuous policy of national defense, which even in these perilous days the democratic party has utterly failed to develop, but which we promise to give to the country.

We accepted the responsibility of the islands as a duty to civilization and the Filipino people. To leave with our task half done would break our pledges, injure our prestige among nations and imperii what has already been accomplished.

We condews the state of the tariff.

The republican party has long to the tariff.

of the United States cannot be preserved by shifty expedients, by phrasemaking, by performances in language, or by attitudes ever changing in an effort to secure groups of voters.

The present administration has destroyed our influence abroad and humiliated us in our own eyes. The republican party believes that a firm, consistent and courageous foreign policy, always maintained by republican Presidents in accordance with American traditions, is the best as it is the only true way to preserve our peace and restore us to our rightful place among the nations. We believe in the pacific settlement of international disputes and favor the establishment of a world court for that purpose.

We renew the pledge to observe this principle and to maistain the right of asylum, which is neither to be surrendered nor restricted, and we unite in the cherished hope that the war which is now desolating the world may speed-lily end, with a complete and lasting restoration of brotherhood among the nations. We believe in the pacific settlement of international disputes and favor the establishment of a world court for that purpose.
